

Living in Love and Faith

Please come and join in the conversation started by the Church of England about gender identity, relationships, sexuality, and faith.

The Diocese of Exeter tells us “This is crucial for the church’s direction in the coming years. The outcomes could have far-reaching consequences for the mission and unity of the church, but this is a conversation that has been going on already for many years.

It’s not always been a conversation that has been conducted well but we hope, by using the Living in love and faith materials, we can talk together and provide feedback to the General Synod.’

Courses last 5 weeks and will start towards the end of September 2021 and will be available both online and in person.

Please express your interest in attending by getting in touch with Anne Jerman at annecjerman@gmail.com so that we can organise the groups to suit those taking part. Please include in your email whether you prefer morning, afternoon or evening and online or in person.

If you are would like to look at the materials we will be studying, you can find them here: www.churchofengland.org/resources/living-love-and-faith.

Life-giving God, in you we live and move and have our being.

Thank you that you have made each of us unique in your own image, as your beloved children.

Thank you that you call us, together, to be your people.

As ‘Living in Love and Faith’ invites us to explore more deeply what it means to be human, and to look honestly at our questions and divisions, we pray for your grace.

We ask that we may listen, learn and grow in love and understanding, in the name of Jesus, who came to live among us so we might live more abundantly.

Amen.
